What the Future of Work Now Demands

"AI is reshaping roles faster than organizations can redesign them. The leaders who will thrive are those who learn to work alongside AI, not compete with it."

Source: McKinsey & Company, Superagency in the Workplace Report, January 2025

What this Means for Management Education

1

Students must learn how to use AI tools to make better decisions

2

Curriculum must focus on analytics, digital strategy and real business problem solving

3

Graduates need adaptability, creativity and strategic judgment that AI can't replace

AACSB ACCREDITED
